Jonathan has been located at The Compton Cassey Gallery for the past seventeen years. Prior to that, he had galleries in London, New York and Woodstock. He has relied on his outside exhibitions throughout the world for that period. He is delighted to announce the opening of the new gallery located at The Inn at Fossebridge, with Robert Jenkins. The gallery will hold monthly exhibitions and there will be large sculpture located around the lake. The website will remain the same except for the images of Cassey being changed to The Inn at Fossebridge.
